

ASSOCIATED UNIVERSITIES, INC.
THE NATIONAL RADIO ASTRONOMY OBSERVATORY
and
THE NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION

VLA DEDICATION DAY

OCTOBER 10, 1980

PROGRAM

See Pamphlet "Visitors Map and Information"

11:30 A.M.	Registration at Antenna Assembly Building	No. ①
	Luncheon at Antenna Assembly Building	No. ①
	Self-guided Tours Start	Nos. ① thru ⑰
	Scientific Displays Open - Cafeteria Building	No. ⑧
	Scientific Orientation Talks Begin - Cafeteria Bldg. On the hour and half-hour	No. ⑨
	Movie "The Invisible Universe" VAX Room of Library-Office Building On the hour and half-hour	No. ⑦
	VLA Array Observes a New Source Every 12 Minutes
3:00 P.M.	Dedication Ceremony Begins North of Warehouse Building	No. ④
4:30 P.M.	Reception at The Tent Antenna Assembly Building	No. ①
5:00 P.M.	Barbeque Begins Serving Line in Tent at Antenna Assembly Building	No. ①
6:30 P.M.	Western Dance Begins Antenna Assembly Building	No. ①

The flag flying over the VLA Site today flew over the United States Capitol on August 14, 1980, at the request of the National Science Foundation and The Honorable George E. Brown, Jr. of California.